

3 From City Elected By ROA

Three Fort Wayne persons were named to office by the Indiana Department of the Reserve Officers Assn. at its annual meeting Saturday in Indianapolis.

Cmdr. Ralph H. G. Mathews was elected vice president in charge of Naval and Marine Corps affairs and Lt. Col. Harold Feichter was named director at large representing the Air Force.

Mrs. Aletha Porter, wife of Col. Robert Porter, was named departmental chaplain for the Reserve Officers Association Ladies.

Mrs. Betty Mathews, wife of Cmdr. Mathews, retiring president of the Indiana Department of the ROAL, was installing officer for the women's group.