

CHAPTER ETERNAL

May We NEVER FORGET Them !

The Mariner's Psalm

"The Lord is my Pilot; He protects my ship. He guides me through hurricanes and past tortuous reefs in the blinding fog. He rides with me across the treacherous bar into the quiet waters of the harbor. He keepeth my charts, radio gear and navigational instruments all "shipshape." He guideth me through the pathless ways of the oceans for His Name's sake. Yes, though I sail through the storms and tempests of life, I shall fear no danger; for Thou art near me; Thy love and Thy care, they protect me. Thou preparest a "snug-harbor" for me in the land of eternity; Thou emblazoneth the skies and the seas with Thy beauty; My ship sails gracefully. Surely, fair seas and good sailing shall favor me on the ships I sail, and I will abide in the presence of my God forever."

In Memoria

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and the evening star,
And one clear call for me !
And may there be no moaning of the bar:
When I put out to sea

But such a tide as moving seems asleep
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the bound
—less deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and the evening bell,
And after that the dark !
And may there be no sadness of farewell!
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Sir Alfred Lord Tennyson

Silent Key

A shaft of sunlight,
Pierces the gloom,
Of the shadowy quiet,
In the radio room,
The equipment sits idle,
Because, you see,
The one who used them,
Joined SILENT KEY.

The once shiny microphone,
Now dusty and dull,
A coaxial switch,
Angles off from the wall,
The chrome plated bug,
A beauty to see,
The one who made use of these,
Joined SILENT KEY.

Gone is the good cheer,
When talking to a friend,
The signal is stilled,
SK, or the end,
No more will the call sign,
Used, ever be,
The one who signed them,
Joined SILENT KEY.

Some time as your listening,
And tuning around,
Do not be startled,
If you hear a strange sound,
Like a quavering, ghostly,
From the departed friend,
Who joined SILENT KEY.

--Howard O. McCall
